Dear Chris,

On behalf of the Canadian Construction Association (CCA), congratulations to the British Columbia Construction Association (BCCA) on once again being named the recipient of the CCA Workforce Excellence Award. It is a pleasure to recognize BCCA's ongoing efforts in championing diversity and inclusion in the construction industry.

Given the challenges that everyone faced this year, it is especially motivating to see initiatives, such as the Skilled Trades Employment Program, continue to place many newcomers in the industry and educate individuals on our very essential work. Your new Builders Code app provides a light-hearted approach to serious topics, at the touch of a finger, and its two-minute reminders ensure that inclusion, respect, and integrity remain top of mind for those on the jobsite, or in the office.

Congratulations again on continuing your excellent work.

Sincerely,
